Market Opens Unchanged ternational Situation Cause | But Gains Are Made Until Liquidation Starts.

New York, Feb. 22.—Prominent issues on he stock market of almost all descriptions, expecially these in the several war groups, were lower by 2 to 10 points today, unfavorable aspects of the international situation causing further liquidation. Solling extended to sugars and utilities in industrials, olls and shippings.

Resumption of trailing was attended by further briscularity, though advances over Wednesday's cleaing quotations were in the majority. Specialties were most prominent, Mexican Petroleum. Sepablic Iron, Nova Scotla Steel, Pittaburg Coal, Miami Copper, and Industrial Alcohol gaining one to four points, with marked strength in Beading and New Haven.
